COCKTAIL DRESSING

To help dress up others, school community service gives aid to teachers, those in need, and other schools in the community. They did a great job this year headed by Mr. DeFelice.

SIZZLING RIPE OLIVES

Publications responsible for the Wingspread and Journalism responsible for the Crest, are always sizzling for news, events, and ripe for new happenings. Head Olives, Joanne Trinca and Lee Rosenbaum work hard to meet those deadlines.

CRACKLE-TOP SNACK

When the intercom goes crackle third period every day KJAL produces announcements and music hits at brunch and lunch.

Top Snacks was the name of the game as top yelling, top efforts and top extra work was put in by each class to capture head title. Everyone enjoyed dressing up and participating as the Juniors won on the final day of Spirit Week.

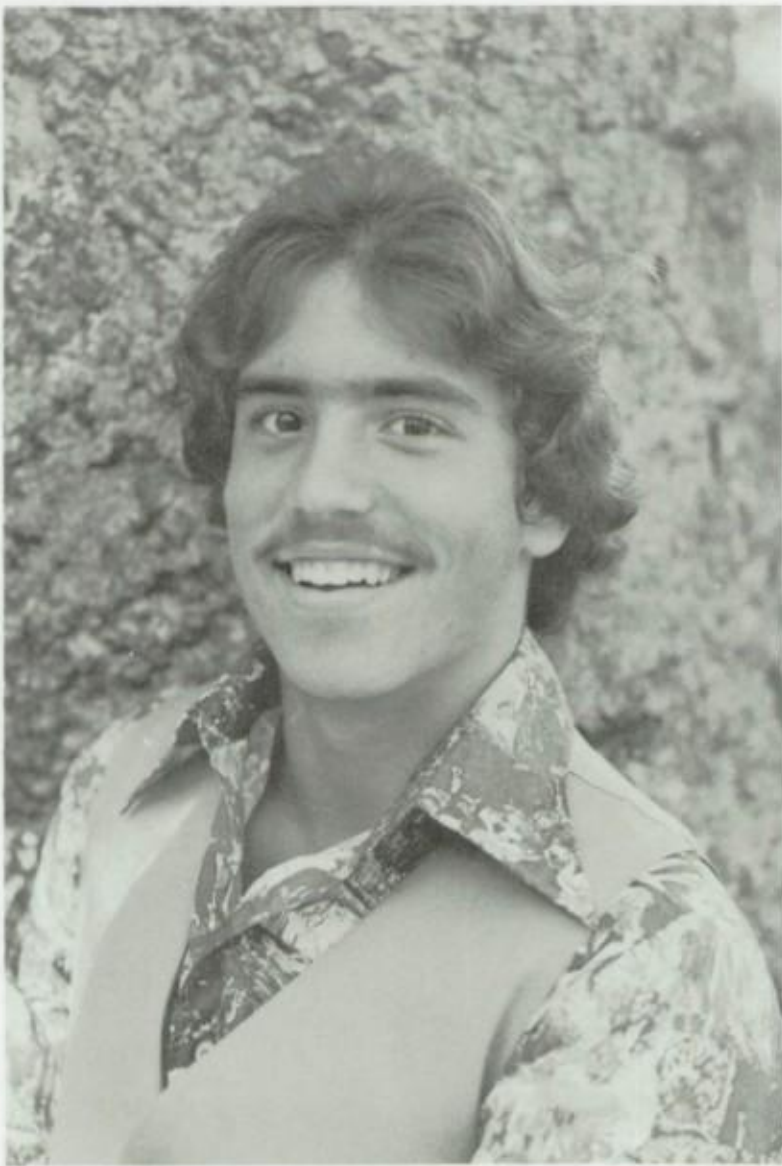

HOMECOMING

Pink Lemonade Frost

A pretty appetizer for the finest from each class. On November 11, 1977 Crestmoor had their traditional homecoming in a non-traditional manor. Couples danced to the music of Arabesque. A unique group, which made the night complete. Last year's queen, Debbie Blundell came to help celebrate and crown the princesses and queen.

Prince: Marc Bresee

Queen: Denise Kaufman

Senior Princess: Debbie Manio

Junior Princess: Terri Marshall

Freshman Princess: Lisa Sandoval

SANTA SOCK HOP

Everyone danced in the brightly decorated gym along with Mr. Herzberg who played Santa. The light show highlighted the band "Lightning Strikes" all on December 16th.

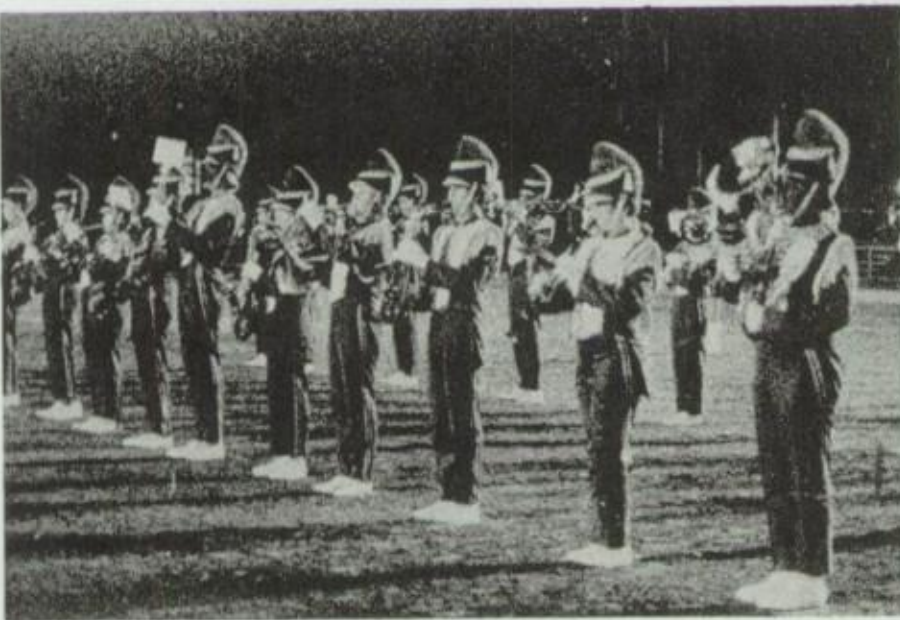

APPETIZER HAM BALL

The 15th annual ISEC talent show was a success with a full house and fine entertainment Mr. Santos and producer David Steinberg, along with M.C. Lee Rosenbaum, made sure the show went smoothly. November 17, 1977

Chicken in a Basket. All the pieces led to basket after basket as CHS's Varsity Team did the best ever in our school history. We placed 2nd in playoffs and all league Roy Raymond broke five records. Extra Crispy Coach Thompson added crunch as first time Varsity coach this year. Coach Thompson, who has been coaching for eight years, seven of which were frosh-soph, was more than ready to lead the Varsity Team into a very impressive season. We'll miss the fine performances of Seniors Roy Raymond, Glenn Lugliani, Mark Boullet, Rob Van Perre, Scott Michelleti, Lamar Williams, and Allen Davison.

Tennis-Whopper Burger

It takes a whopper of a serve every time to defeat the opponent. CHS's team can do just that. Coach Daniels coaches both the Varsity Whoppers and Junior Varsity Junior Whoppers. Smash hitters are Dale Anderson, Jeff McGuinn, Scott Fletcher, Les Sanchez, and Glen Lugliani.

Golf-Iced Tee

Any thirst from a Hot to Go meal can be driven away with a glass of iced tea. Our home tee leaves are fortified with eight essential vitamins--including iron. This years team has won it's first match since 1975 and show a promising season. They will participate in tournaments such as the Marin County Tournament during Spring Vacation. Top golfers are Jeff Cresta along with Chris Mitchell, Cliff Grech and Mark Boullet.
